BY-LAWS, &c.

I.

THAT this Lodge shall be held on the first Tuesday of every Calendar Month, at Masonic Hall, or such other place, within the City, as the Worshipful Master and a majority of the Members present at any regular meeting, may determine. The hours of meeting to be as follows: viz.—From the Vernal Equinox to the Autumnal Equinox, at Seven o'clock in the Evening; and from the Autumnal Equinox aforesaid, to the Vernal Equinox following, at Six o'clock. Lodges of Enquiry may at any time be called by order of the Worshipful Master, or, in his absence, by the Senior Warden.

II.

THAT a Master, Treasurer, and Tyler, for this Lodge, shall be Elected annually by Ballot, on the regular night in November, and on the Saint John's Day following, when the Minutes are confirmed, the Master elect shall be installed in the Chair, according to ancient usages; after which he is to appoint his Wardens and other Officers, and regularly install them, as also the Treasurer and Tyler, before elected, into their respective Offices.

III.

It is the joint expectation of the Members of this Lodge, that punctual attendance will at all times be given at their regular communications, as also at Lodges of Emergency, when thereunto required by summons; and any Member so far forgetting the respect due to his Brother and the Lodge, as not to appear in clean and decent apparel, shall, for the first offence, be admonished by the Master in the Chair, and for a second offence of a similar nature, he may be ordered to leave the Lodge for the evening, and should he on a third occasion be guilty of the like disrespect, by the voice of a majority of the Members present, he may be suspended until he make due submission, and promise amendment.

IV.

THAT any person wishing to be made a Mason in this Lodge, must make application in writing—be proposed in open Lodge by a Member—and deposit at the time he is proposed, Twenty Shillings. If he be admitted, this shall be considered as part of what he is to pay into the fund—(if he be rejected, the money to be returned; but should the Candidate decline coming forward, the money to be forfeited to the Lodge)—He shall stand on the Books one month, that strict enquiry may be made as to his character; (unless proposed at an emergency, and the character of the individual so well known by the Members, as to preclude the necessity of further enquiry;) then to be balloted for on the next regular Lodge night, when, on the ballot being taken, if one negative appear, he shall be declared duly admitted, unless the Brother making the objection, rise and state to the Lodge, reasons for the applicant's being refused, to the satisfaction of a majority of the Members present ; but two negatives shall exclude, without any reason being assigned.

In balloting for a Brother to become a Member, if two negatives are against him, he shall be admitted, unless satisfactory reasons are assigned, as before, for his being rejected ; but three negatives shall exclude without any reason being given.

V.

THAT every Candidate, after being balloted for and accepted, shall, before he is admitted, pay or cause to be paid into the hands of the Secretary, the sum of Five Pounds Five Shillings, (which sum entitles him in due course to the Master's Degree,) of which the Twenty Shillings deposited at the time of his application, shall be deemed a part ; and should an Emergency be called for giving either of the Degrees, at the request of a Candidate, he shall defray the whole of the expence.

VI.

A BROTHER desirous of becoming a Member of this Lodge, must produce a certificate of his good conduct from a Lodge to which he formerly belonged—be proposed by a Member in open Lodge, and shall stand on the Books one month, that strict enquiry may be made as to his character, unless proposed at an emergency, and his character so well known by the members as to render further enquiry unnecessary ; then to be balloted for as by the 4th article, on the next regular Lodge night, and if admitted, he shall pay into the funds Fifteen Skillings, as also his proportion of the evening's expences.

VII.

EVERY person initiated into this Lodge, shall be considered a Member on receiving the Degree of a Master Mason, from which time his Dues shall commence ; nor shall any Member be allowed to withdraw his Membership, or declare off, without paying up all his Dues.

VIII.

If any Member shall presume to come into the Lodge in a state of intoxication, use profane or immoral language, or shall behave with disrespect to the Master, Wardens, or Brethren of this Lodge, in any manner so as to disturb the peace and harmony of the Brethren, he shall for the first and second offence, be admonished by the Master in the Chair, and for a third of the like nature, he shall be suspended, and reported to the Grand Lodge for expulsion.

IX.

In all debates concerning the affairs of the Lodge, complaint made, or questions that may arise, every Brother shall stand up while he speaks, and address himself to the Master ; and if more than one speak at a time, the Master shall order the first who stood up, to proceed, and the rest shall immediately sit down and be silent, until such Brother has done; and no private alterations or disputes are to be suffered during Lodge hours—the Master and Wardens shall be strictly attended to, and punctually obeyed in their official capacities, nor is any Brother to quit the Room without leave from the Master.

X.

EVERY Member of the Lodge shall pay into the funds the sum of One Shilling and Four-pence per month, and the Secretary is hereby required to make out and lay before the Lodge, at the regular Lodge night preceding the 24th June and 27th December, of each year, a statement of all Dues owing to the Lodge, at which times it is expected every Member will attend and pay his Dues in full, or forward them to the Secretary, that the Books may be cleared; and every Member who does not, within three months after the period above stated, pay his Dues, shall not, upon any occasion, be allowed to vote in the Lodge, until the same is paid; and if his whole Dues are not paid by the following Saint John's Day, he shall be suspended and reported to the Grand Lodge for expulsion, unless some cause appears to satisfy the Lodge, and they grant further indulgence.

XI.

IF at any time, on a ballot being taken for the admission of a Candidate or Member in this Lodge, the person applying be rejected, it is required of every Brother present, (as well Members as Visiting Brethren,) that they do not, on the honor of a Mason, at any time, or under any circumstances, disclose the name or names of the Brethren who oppose the admission; and any Brother offending against this rule, if he be a Member of the Lodge, shall be suspended from Membership, and his name taken from the list of Members—and if a Visiting Brother, he cannot be again allowed to visit this Lodge, or become a Member thereof; and that any Brother present may not plead ignorance of this By-law, the Master shall direct this clause to be distinctly read in open Lodge, immediately after a negative passes, and previous to any communication being made to the applicant that he is rejected.

XII.

THAT a Brother under the Degree of a Master Mason, shall not be permitted to walk in procession at a funeral in this Lodge, nor shall any Visitor be admitted without the consent of the Master in the Chair. A Brother that is not a Member of a Lodge, cannot visit more than once, during his cessation from the Craft—Sojourners excepted.

XIII.

ON the regular night of meeting in November, a Committee of three Members shall be nominated by the Master, and approved by a majority of the Members present, to examine the Secretary and Treasurer's accounts, and report on the same to the Lodge, on the 27th of December following; and it shall be the duty of said Committee to see that the accounts are correctly and properly adjusted, and that no accounts are paid by the Treasurer, unless duly authorized by the Lodge, and signed by the Master.

XIV.

THAT a standing Committee of five persons be appointed, whose duty it shall be to investigate into the characters of all persons applying for initiation, and also into the characters of Masons applying to become Members, on the report of which Committee, or of any three of them, given in writing, the Lodge may proceed to ballot for admission.—And during the recess of the Lodge, all applications for Charity shall be made to this standing Committee; and if in any case, assistance may be required previous to the regular Lodge night, the Master may, on the favorable recommendation of any three of said Committee, order a sum not exceeding Two Pounds, to any one applicant, to be paid by the Treasurer, who is hereby authorized to pay the same from the funds.

XV.

THAT these rules and orders shall be read by the Secretary, or some other Brother of the Master's appointing, as often as occasion shall require, in the Lodge; and that every Brother shall furnish himself with a copy of the same.

XVI.

EVERY Member, on his admission, shall sign these Laws, and shall observe and keep them and all such as shall hereafter be enacted, as well as all the Laws, Orders, and Regulations laid down in the last edition of the Book of Constitutions of Masonry, and such as shall hereafter be made or published by authority of the Grand Lodge; and if any Member of this Lodge break any of these Rules or Orders, he shall, by the voice of a majority of the Members present at any meeting, be suspended and reported to the Grand Lodge for expulsion. If any Member refuse or neglect to sign these By-laws, when requested so to do by the Secretary, he shall not be suffered to vote on any questions that may come before the Lodge, until he shew his compliance by putting his name thereto.

XVII.

THAT if any Member be found guilty of any misdemeanor, not directly specified in the foregoing Rules and Orders, he shall be dealt with according to the discretion of the Master and a majority of the Brethren present, whose decision, nevertheless, shall be subject to an appeal to the Grand Lodge.
